"I had been in foster care from a very young age. When I was 19, I felt accomplished when I got a full ride to Washington State for basketball. After starting college, I noticed some health issues, so I went to the doctor. I learned that I had leukemia and had to leave school to be treated. My foster family refused to take me back in."
- CHA Youth

Since 1988, Covenant House Alaska (CHA) has been the leading provider of services to youth experiencing homelessness. We are able to serve teens and young adults with help from our community!

Our mission is simple.
Our work is difficult.
Our passion is fierce.
